USTM felicitates housekeeping and support staff

Ri-BHOI, (Meghalaya), DEC 4: In recognition of the contributions of its housekeeping and support staff, the University of Science and Technology Meghalaya (USTM) today showed a noble gesture by felicitating 100 workers at a felicitation ceremony organized here today. All the housekeeping and operational members were felicitated with gamocha and gifts by Mahbubul Hoque, Chancellor of USTM.

In a gathering of more than 1000 students, teachers and other staff members of the organization, the USTM authorities displayed a gratitude to the housekeeping and support staff by showing respect to them for the work they do for the organization.

Addressing the assembled gathering Hoque said, "The housekeeping and the operational staff are integral family members of the institute and we do care and respect them for their service. We want to extend our bonding of brotherhood and respect the dignity of labour."

The felicitation ceremony was followed by a feast which was mainly to recognize the sincere and devoted service of the support staff. The function was participated by all the staff members of USTM.

'Be a Soldier to build the Nation', says Acharya

GUWAHATI, Oct 17: University of Science & Technology Meghalaya (USTM) has organized the valedictory session of the month long orientation program for newly admitted students on Monday. Governor of Assam and former Governor of Meghalaya, P.B. Acharya, was the Chief Guest of the event. In the month long orientation for more than 1500 students, witnessed the participation of galaxy of eminent academicians, researchers, entrepreneurs and professionals from different institutes of repute which culminated in the valedictory program.

In his address, Governor of Assam P.B. Acharya said that Meghalaya is a country of unity in diversity and our youth should not lost pride in their own heritage, culture and mother tongue in terms of following the western countries. Acharya urged the students to remember their identity and put effort to strengthen the society. Acharya stressed on the importance of education which should be the key of building a developed society, but it is observed that in India most of the universities are failing to solve the real problems of the society, he added. By citing the example of top class universities of the world which are run by the industrialists and not by the government, the Governor suggested the youth to be educated entrepreneurs in order to return the education to the society. Acharya praised the initiative of Mahabubul Hoque, the Chancellor of USTM to build such an institution of repute with a dream to make it a world class university, the example of his global thinking and in his act, opened the university which is serving the student of this region the quality education in their door step. He also urged each and every students to adopt the basic values of life to be a content person in the society rather than just earning money. Acharya further alleged that there are still some tribal communities in the country who have not got their proper recognition.

Sh. Mahabubul Hoque,

Chancellor, USTM in his inspiring speech asked the students and faculty members to set the goal and work with dedication and sincerity so that the university can become the centre for excellence. He emphasized the need to inspire the teachers who are relentlessly putting the effort and to do so the university has chosen twenty best teachers on the basis of Departmental Assessment & Evaluation (DAPE) and Faculty Assessment & Evaluation (FAPE) from the last academic session. The Governor of Nagaland presented the certificate of appreciation and cash reward of ten thousand each to the performing teachers along with three best departments of the university. This was stated in a press release.
